SMFA Bulletin: 12th February 2021

Message from the Headteacher:

I hope that everyone is keeping well and staying safe at home. I have enjoyed dropping in on a few Remote Learning Sessions this week and will hopefully be able to pop into a few more after half term.

I was very impressed with children in the Julia Donaldson Class and Judith Kerr Class. All of the children were really focused and joining in with their phonics session.

It was also great to chat to some of the children in the Roald Dahl Class about the snowmen they had made this week.

Children in our Face to Face provision also created their own snow creature which has been watching over my office all week!

I popped in to see the children in our Key Stage 2 Face to Face provision this week and enjoyed listening to them learning to play the ukulele. Well done to Leo and Henry for practising at home. I also loved looking at Mya's art work.

Children in the Michael Morpurgo Class have been learning about Sikhism and Freya has made a beautiful Sikh bowl and lotus flower. The bowl was made with model magic and she plans on painting it once it has dried and set. The lotus flower was cut out using a Cricut machine and Freya curled the petals and glued all the layers together.

Thank you to everyone who completed the Parent/Carer online questionnaire. We will be working on some of the feedback to help to improve our Remote Learning offer.

Well done to the following children for receiving a Headteacher's Award for this half term, teachers are only supposed to choose one child, but some have been cheeky and chosen two:

Julia Donaldson Class: Danika and Sophie

Judith Kerr Class: Ronnie and Harmoni-Rose

Oliver Jeffers Class: Amelia-Rose

Roald Dahl Class: Riley

Enid Blyton Class: Matilda
