Message from the Headteacher:

Happy Friday everyone! It has been an exciting, fun-filled week at school this week.

I enjoyed seeing Oliver Jeffers take part in some outdoor learning. They went minibeast hunting around the school and discovered centipedes, beetles and even a huge spider (well done Miss Gunner for staying calm when the spider ran towards her)!

Roald Dahl and Judith Kerr have been making lots of money this week selling lemonade and ice pops for our school Enterprise project. Which class will earn the most money? We will let you know when all the classes have finished selling their things!

I've also had many children visiting me over the past couple of weeks to collect their prizes for earning many dojo points- keep up the excellent work everyone.

We really enjoyed our Sports Festival on Wednesday afternoon. Below are a few pictures from the event!
