SMFA Bulletin: 10th December 2021

Message from the Headteacher:

My penultimate Bulletin of the year! How the time flies. We have had a busy week at school and it just continues to get busier next week ready for Christmas.

EYFS and Key Stage 1 have been practising non-stop for their Christmas Performance! I can't wait to watch it. It will be broadcast on Tapestry across the week as a pre-recorded performance. There will be 5 parts across the 5 day build up to the holidays. If you are a parent or carer of EYFS & KSI, make sure you give permission and sign up to Tapestry before next week!

I have also heard some incredibly tuneful singing coming from Enid Blyton Class this week. Their version of Abba's Mamma Mia is excellent- make sure you ask your children to perform for you!

Next week we have the following going on at school:

Monday- Year 4 are out on a school trip.

Wednesday- It is RE Day- we will be celebrating Christianity. It is also Christmas Jumper Day and Christmas Lunch.

Thursday- There is the Christmas Panto at 10am-11:30am. We will bring around ice creams (or some sort of treat) at the interval for everyone to enjoy. We had to take the decision to not go to the live theatre this year but hopefully we can do this again next year.

We have had to cancel the Christmas Carol Concert this year to take precautions due to the rise in COVID cases locally - sorry to everyone looking forward to this.

Friday – School will finish at 2pm. We will have Christmas parties in school. Class teachers will send out more information about this to their individual classes.

End of Term Reports will also be going home this week.

If you are eligible for Free School Meals, you should receive your vouchers for £30 on Thursday/Friday next week. If you need these printed, please speak to the school office before Thursday.

Thank you for your ongoing support.
Miss Debbie Conroy
